O sweet and blessed Germaine spouse of Jesus Christ, keep us from danger, shelter us from thunderstorms. Pray for us.

O my little Germaine, my sister in Jesus Christ, return to sweet solitude, return to the bliss of the Lord that He has prepared for you, and one day call us, my little Germaine, to also enjoy, my little Germaine, the happiness that the Lord has prepared for you. That we in our sorrows and our afflictions, in our maladies, may one day enjoy the happiness that you enjoy. May we say one day and say eternally: "all yours" O Lord. Amen.
